Hilderstone College requirements for students under the age of 18

Students will be expected to:

- Attend the Welfare Briefing on their first day, and a follow-up welfare meeting for under-18s in their first week. (Please note: students under the age of 18 who are part of a group with group leader(s) do not receive the follow-up briefing).
- Maintain a mature attitude in classes, during social activities and at the homestay family.
- Attend all classes.
- Give an approximate time that they will be home for their evening meal, and inform their homestay family if they will be late.
- Return to homestay by 23.00. An earlier time may be specified by the student's parent, guardian, group leader or homestay family.
- Ask the Accommodation and Welfare Officer if they have any queries or concerns about cultural differences in the UK.
- Tell their homestay or the Accommodation and Welfare Officer if they are feeling unwell, and report any absences.
- Inform the Accommodation and Welfare Officer if they are concerned about any issue such as bullying and harassment, including online, or any issue relating to alcohol, drugs or relationships.
- Inform the Accommodation and Welfare Officer of their travel plans for their return journey.

Please note:

The College must receive additional written permission from the student's parent or guardian to:

- Stay overnight with friends, or independently.
- Arrange a holiday, daytrip or weekend trip with friends, or independently.
- Take part in high risk activities e.g. climbing, sailing, skiing.
- Stay in accommodation arranged privately by the student.

Should you have any requests or questions please put these in writing to Julie Russell, the Accommodation and Welfare Officer at: louisec@hilderstone.ac.uk
